--W. A. Bacon sold to George Loomis, of Minneapolis, Minn., Friday morning a yealing colt for $700. This is an excellent price for an untried youngster. The colt is by Jay Bird out of Lucy Jay, dam of Bettie Brent 2:101 as a three-year-old. Her second dam is Puella 2:23.

Judge Ed O'Rear sold his farm of 200 acres near Mt. Sterling, at $90 per acre, and had a sale of personal property. One mare and colt sold for $1,100; another for $1,000; one mare by Rex Peavine to W. M. Jones, of North Middletown, for $250; a mare by Chester Dare, 10, out of a mare by McDonald, to E. K. Thomas, for $230; 40 feeding cattle at $4.25 per hundred; Southdown sneep $11 per head; yearling cattle $30 per head; corn in field $3 per barrel; shoates $5 per hundred. Judge O'Rear has purchased the Jack Hendrick farm of 90 acres, near Frankfort, for $16,000.

feeders that this season's crop of hogs will be the lightest in weight known to the market for many years. The scar-city and high price of corn is sending more shoats and light hogs to market At a public sale of Polled Durbam more shoats and light hogs to market cattle held by Shaver & Denker, at Kalona, Iowa, forty-five females aveireasonable to assume that this will reasonable to assume that this will naturally deplete the hog supply, and that a reaction may be confidently expected in the near future. When that time comes the feeder who has the nerve and the feed to hold on will be "in the swim." But under present conditions it takes plenty of nerve and plenty of corn to do it.

Good Democratic News.

been in Chicago for nearly two weeks directing the fight in the West for the election of the Democratic tickei, left Friday night for the East. After registering at his home in Buffalo, Mr. Mack will leave for New York to look over the situation in New York and the East. Mr. Mack said before his departure.

"When I came West some two weeks ago, I realized that the tide had turned towards Democracy and every indication pointed to victory for the Democracy in November. The situation is far better now than then, and I return East confident in the election of Mr.

Bryan.
"I have not received one discouraging report. Mr. Bryan will not only receive the majority of the electoral vote, but one of the greatest popular votes ever given a candidate.

"The fight is won, but we must keep everlastingly at it, for the remaining two weeks of the campaign. It is too early to give out figures, and I will not attempt to do so. But I will say now that New York, Ohio and Indiana are Democratic this year and my prediction does not take into consideration a number of other States that will swing from the Republican to the Democratic olumn two weeks from Tuesday.'

Remarkable Ovation.

William J. Bryan spoke Saturday night in Omaha and was the recipient of a remarkable ovation. The big auditorium was filled an hour before the speaking began, and when Mr. Bryan appeared the entire audience stood up, waving flags and shouting a thunderous greeting to Nebraska's most dis-tinguished citizen.
